

Supplement to Base Prospectus for Mortgage Covered Bonds Issued by Realkredit Danmark A/S in Capital Centre T

Due to the new counterparty criteria from Standard & Poor's with transition date 11 January 2013 a Supplement to Base Prospectus for Mortgage Covered Bonds Issued by Realkredit Danmark A/S in Capital Centre T as of 8 January 2013 is hereby announced.

As a consequence of the new counterparty criteria from Standard & Poor's the last section of chapter 3.2 is replaced by:

“Collection accounts should always be kept with a bank rated at least BBB/A-2 by Standard & Poor's as long as the day-to-day balance of the accounts in the specific bank does not exceed five per cent of the outstanding amount in the capital centre. If the bank account provider is downgraded by Standard & Poor's to a rating below BBB/A-2 or the rating is withdrawn Realkredit Danmark will with all reasonable efforts within 30 days from this date try to transfer the accounts to a bank that fulfils the criteria.

In case the day-to-day balance of the accounts in the specific bank exceeds five per cent the bank account provider should have a rating of at least A/A-1. If the bank account provider is downgraded by Standard & Poor's to a rating below A/A-1 or the rating is withdrawn Realkredit Danmark will with all reasonable efforts within 60 days from this date try to transfer the accounts to a bank that fulfils the criteria. If it will be necessary to transfer the accounts to another bank, all future payments targeted the previous accounts will be targeted the new accounts.

Regardless hereof, Realkredit Danmark A/S may maintain collection accounts with balances of up to DKK 100 million per account provider and DKK 250 million in total with banks not rated by Standard & Poor's. “
